

Gale Alexander – Candidate State Representative 67th District – Biography

Prior to running for State Representative, Gale Alexander has served several terms on the New Milford Board of Finance, both as an elected member and as an alternate. He has also served New Milford on the Arts Commission and as a justice of the peace.

No stranger to the pressure of political campaigns, beginning in 2000, Mr. Alexander has served as campaign manager for candidates for state representative, mayor and state senate. He is also a member of and the web master for the local Democratic Town Committee.

A professional magician and event contractor, he has owned and operated Rabbat Productions for 35 years. He also holds a Connecticut teaching certificate and has served the New Milford and Danbury school districts as a substitute teacher on occasion. Mr. Alexander holds a bachelor of arts degree in Community Leadership and Development from Springfield College in Massachusetts and a master's in education from the University of South Carolina, Columbia.

Mr. Alexander has lived in New Milford for 25 years with his wife Jackie. They have two children, Maxwell (23) and Zoe (21), who were both educated in the New Milford school system.

